

It is preposterous to try to inhibit Satellite Radio's right to free speech by preventing them from broadcasting similar content to that of their counterparts. Preventing satellite radio from broadcasting localized content only works to strength the monopoly that the National Association of Broadcasters maintains on its media frequencies. I urge you to consider carefully the repurcussions of preventing competition from emerging in ANY media marketplace, whether it be satellite or local stations.